

Date: 7th March 2023

Hash No.: 146 – Haytor lower CP; On-Down Tinpickle And Rhum

Hare: Chardonnay

Hashers: (in no particular order! As I remember them) Buzby, No Butt, Mouthful, Lizbien, That's Crap, She's Ready, Come2nite, GHR, Endo, HT2, Hairy Mollusc, Slip on Me, Beefy, Pisswell.

Before the Hash

As Hairy and Lizbien hadn't been to Haytor before, they followed the Sat Nav, which took them to the Higher car park instead of the lower one. Hairy asked a driver if he was in the lower car park, YES came the answer, after a few more questions (how would you like my finger in your ear, etc. etc.) Hairy got the impression if he'd asked if he was on the moon the answer would have been YES!! They did eventually get to the lower car park to be greeted by Buzby who declared, 'No Hugs' today we may have caught Covid after a weekend in deepest Cornwall, this was the reason for Night Screecher's absence. (Get well soon Screech)

Buzby, standing all alone, called the circle to order, and after a quick count there were 13 of us, Chardonnay stated there were 2 long / short splits straight from the car park, shorts across the road, longs head towards the blue light at the other end of the car park.

Both trails eventually crossed the road and onto the Moor, the Longs splitting up to try and follow the trail, eventually getting to a Ha Ha where they turned around and headed straight for Haytor Rock and the sweetie stop. GHR was found standing on the opposite side of the rock to everyone else, thinking he was answering the call of nature, the walkers carried on to where the pack were stood waiting for the sweeties, only to realise GHR was standing around the corner out of the wind, it didn't take long for everyone to join him.

Chardonnay did a head count (head who said head!!!!) to make sure we hadn't lost anyone only to find we had FOUND two lost Hashers from the last Hash at Haytor about 3 weeks beforehand!!!

Off we went again with the walkers heading straight down the hill towards the Car Park and the runners went via the Higher car park, (deja vue for some).

A quick circle followed with Down Downs going to

Chardonnay as the Hare

Slip on Me for star gazing even though it was a cloudy evening

Hairy Mollusc and Lizbien for navigating to the wrong car park

In the Pub we sat around what looked like an old school science bench, gas taps, electrical sockets and covered over sink openings, Slip on Me was looking at all the names etched into the top to see if her name was there, then she noticed what she thought was the school crest, not realising it was some school kid game of noughts and crosses.

Last into the pub were That's Crap, She's Ready, Come2nite and GHR who took so long deciding what to have for dinner were told sorry the kitchen is closed!!! We have crisps and nuts at the bar though.
